

ORDIANCE

ORDINANCE FOR THE REULATION OF FOX HUNTING IN ALLEGHANY COUNTY, N. C.

Whereas, by act of the 1977 General Assembly of North Carolina, Alleghany County was removed from the provisions of NCGS 113-11, which Statute did provide for no closed season for fox hunting in certain counties of North Carolina, and

Whereas, NCGS 113-100 provides that in the absence of other Statutes fox hunting is to be regulated by the individual counties.

IT IS HEREBY ORDAINED by the Alleghany County Commissioners meeting at their regularly scheduled meeting on February, 1978, that there shall be no closed season on the hunting of foxes in Alleghany County, and that foxes may be hunted at any time of the day or night, at any season or on any date in the year, with or without the assistance of dogs. However, any person hunting foxes must comply with the provisions of the North Carolina General Statutes as to the obtaining of a hunting license and no traps of any description may be used in the hunting of said foxes.
