General Business

Funding for Allegheny High School track and stadium area

Brent Long explained the problems with the current Allegheny High School track and stadium area.

Brent Long said the track is not in compliance to hold track meets and the visitor bleachers are on the verge of being condemned and need to be replaced.

Brent Long said renovations to the track and stadium will be roughly $700,000.

There was discussion between the boards about the financial status of the county and when and if this project is a possibility.

Auditorium discussion

Chad Beasley highlighted the potential opportunities and challenges at the auditorium building.

Superintendent comments

Chad Beasley thanked the Commissioners for the opportunity to meet, asked that the boards meet quarterly moving forward and talked about 5 and 10-year needs.

School Board comments

Amy Bottomley thanked the Commissioners for their support and for listening to the School Board's plans.

Suzanne Irwin agreed the boards should meet quarterly.

Interim County Manager comments

Chair Evans encouraged the School Board to go look at the lockdown device in the Tax/Tag office.

County Commissioner comments

Commissioner Larry Prince asked for a status update of the SROs.

Chad Beasley said the SROs are working out great and there may be some additional funding becoming available to offset the cost to the county.

Commissioner John Irwin thanked the School Board for being open and honest with the Commissioners about upcoming projects.

Commissioner Bobby Irwin said the auditorium could be a year-round venue for Alleghany county and asked to discuss the Lion's Club responsibilities with the school system.

Commissioner Bobby Irwin said he had the opportunity to spend time with the Special Education class today and it was an enjoyable experience.

Commissioner Bill Osborne thanked the School Board for keeping the lines of communication open and thanked Graham Lewis for his presentation.

Adjourn

Commissioner Larry Prince made a motion to adjourn. Commissioner John Irwin seconded. Vote 5:0.

Respectfully submitted,

Drew Temple,
Clerk to the Board

Mark Evans,
Chairman
